

SEC. 33. It shall be the duty of all teachers of free public schools to maintain good order and discipline in their respective schools, to encourage morality, industry and neatness in all their pupils, and to teach thoroughly all branches which they profess to teach. If any pupil should wilfully and persistently violate the rules of school, such pupil may be dismissed by the teacher for the remainder of the current term.

Duty of free school teachers.

SEC. 34. The state board of education may recommend the course of study to be pursued, the text books and other means of instruction to be used in the free public schools: Provided, That no sectarian or political text books or influences shall be used in any free public school.

Course of study recommended.

Proviso.

SEC. 35. The superintendent of public instruction shall have the school laws of the state published in pamphlet form and distributed to all school officers in the state; shall have printed all forms necessary and proper for the purposes of this act, and shall look after the school interests of the state at large, and report to the governor of the state on or before the third Monday of November of every year, which report shall give information and statistics of the free schools, and recommend such improvements in the school law as may occur to him. He shall keep his office at the seat of government, and shall sign all requisitions on the auditor for the payment of money out of the state treasury for school purposes, copies of his acts and decisions, and of all papers kept in his office and authenticated by his signature and official seal, shall be of the same force and validity as the original. He shall be furnished with such room, fuel and stationery as shall be necessary for the efficient discharge of the duties of his office as heretofore.

Publication of school laws.

Office of Superintendent.

SEC. 36. All state and county capitation taxes which shall be levied and collected for school purposes under the constitution, and all the tax levied and collected under the act, shall be paid to the county treasurer of the counties respectively in which the same are collected, and shall constitute a revenue and fund for the support of public schools in said counties respectively, and shall not be used for any

Taxation to constitute a revenue.

X